

Teacher: Ashley Schuette & Stacey Stults	Subject: Arts and Humanities	Monday, September 29, 2015	Art & Music Native American Culture Unit
KY Core Content Standards	Learning Target	Procedures/Activities
K-3: AH-EP-2.1.1: Students will identify music from the following cultures and periods (Native American). AH-EP-2.2.1: Students will identify dances of the following cultures and periods (Native American). AH-EP-2.3.1: Students will identify folktales, legends, or myths from the following cultures and periods (Native American). AH-EP-2.4.1: Students will identify art from the following cultures and periods (Native American).	Kindergarten /First grade
	Kindergarten- I will identify Native American dance, music, drama, and visual art. First grade- I will identify Native American dance, music, drama, and visual art.	Students will experience different elements of the Native American culture through a guest speaker, Firebear. Firebear will share stories with the students and explain how drama played a role in Native American culture. He will also show students examples of visual art to better help students understanding of functional artwork. Students will have the opportunity to listen to and identify music related to the Native American culture. Firebear will provide a first-hand Native American experience for our students. He will show the students the different types of dance, drama, music, and artwork specific to the Native American Culture.
AH-EP-3.2.1: Students will experience dance created for a variety of purposes (ceremonial). AH-EP-3.3.1: Students will experience dramatic works created for a variety of purposes (passing on tradition and culture). AH-EP-3.4.1: Students will experience visual art works created for a variety of purposes (functional). AH-EP-4.2.3: Students will perform traditional folk dances, square dances and social dances of ethnic groups (Native American).	Second Grade
	I will identify Native American dance, music, drama, and visual art.	Students will experience different elements of the Native American culture through a guest speaker, Firebear. Firebear will share stories with the students and explain how drama played a role in Native American culture. He will also show students examples of visual art to better help students understanding of functional artwork. Students will have the opportunity to listen to and identify music related to the Native American culture. Firebear will provide a first-hand Native American experience for our students. He will show the students the different types of dance, drama, music, and artwork specific to the Native American Culture.

Third Grade

4: AH-04-2.1.1: Students will identify how music has been a part of cultures and periods throughout history (Native American).

AH-04-2.2.1: Students will identify how dance has been a part of cultures and periods throughout history (Native American).

AH-04-2.3.1: Students will identify how drama has been part of cultures and time periods throughout history (Native American).

AH-04-2.4.1: Students will identify how visual art has been a part of cultures and time periods throughout history.

AH-04-3.2.1: Students will identify how dance fulfills a variety of purposes (ceremonial).

AH-04-3.3.1: Students will identify how drama/theatre fulfills a variety of purposes (passing on tradition and culture).

AH-04-3.4.1: Students will identify how art fulfills a variety of purposes (functional).

AH-04-4.2.3: Students will perform traditional folk danced, square danced and ethnic dances (Native American).

5: AH-05-2.1.1: Students will describe or explain how music has been a part of cultures and periods throughout history (Native American).

I will identify Native American dance, music, drama, and visual art.

Students will experience different elements of the Native American culture through a guest speaker, Firebear. Firebear will share stories with the students and explain how drama played a role in Native American culture. He will also show students examples of visual art to better help students understanding of functional artwork. Students will have the opportunity to listen to and identify music related to the Native American culture. Firebear will provide a first-hand Native American experience for our students. He will show the students the different types of dance, drama, music, and artwork specific to the Native American Culture.

AH-05-2.2.1: Students will describe how dance has been a part of cultures throughout history (Native American).

AH-05-2.3.1: Students will describe or explain how drama has been a part of cultures and time periods throughout history (Native American).

AH-05-2.4.1: Students will describe or explain how visual art has been a part of cultures and time periods throughout history (Native American).

AH-05-3.2.1: Students will describe or explain how dance fulfills a variety of purposes (ceremonial).

AH-05-3.3.1: Students will describe or explain how drama/theatre fulfills a variety of purposes (passing on tradition and culture).

AH-05-3.4.1: Students will describe or explain how art fulfills a variety of purposes (functional).

AH-05-4.2.3: Students will perform traditional folk dances, square dances, and ethnic dances (Native American).

Essential Vocabulary

K- Native American culture, weaving, rugs
1st grade- Native American culture, weaving, rugs
2nd grade- Native American culture, parfleche
3rd grade- Native American culture, totem/fetish
4th grade – Native American culture, sand art
5th grade-Native American culture, Rattle

Fourth Grade

I will identify Native American dance, music, drama, and visual art.

Students will experience different elements of the Native American culture through a guest speaker, Firebear. Firebear will share stories with the students and explain how drama played a role in Native American culture. He will also show students examples of visual art to better help students understanding of functional artwork. Students will have the opportunity to listen to and identify music related to the Native American culture.

Fifth Grade

I will identify Native American dance, music, drama, and visual art.

Students will experience different elements of the Native American culture through a guest speaker, Firebear. Firebear will share stories with the students and explain how drama played a role in Native American culture. He will also show students examples of visual art to better help students understanding of functional artwork. Students will have the opportunity to listen to and identify music related to the Native American culture.